3. Updates: Ongoing Research & Evaluation Activities

- TRISI Project Evaluation: Jenifer Clark provided a status update on the evaluation of the TRISI project. We have contracted with Susan Wolfe, a consultant with expertise in trauma-informed and participatory evaluation who will be guiding this work. We will be contacting the organizations who participated in the initial round of the TRISI project to collect qualitative information through key informant interviews and Journey Mapping. We will also explore the possibility of readministering the Trauma-Informed Organizational Practices Assessment to identify any shifts in these organizations' development of trauma-informed practices. Organizations that participated in the second round of the TRISI project will also participate in the qualitative data collection. The goals of the evaluation include learning about how different aspects of the TRISI project impacted organizations' work to become more trauma-informed, and anything that facilitated or impeded ongoing work in this area. We will also be asking the participating organizations what they would like to learn from the evaluation and incorporating that information into the process.
- Client-Level and Systems Improvement Data Collection Pilot: This topic was held over due to technological difficulties. Sally Lee of EVALCORP will send the update presentation out to the Committee Members for asynchronous review. Jenifer Clark will follow up to gather feedback and questions to share with EVALCORP.

4. Discussion: Social Network Analysis of F5SMC Grantee and Partner Organizations

This topic was held over due to technological difficulties. Sally Lee of EVALCORP will send the presentation out to the Committee Members for asynchronous review. Jenifer Clark will follow up with Committee members to gather feedback and questions to incorporate into the planning process for the survey.

The next meeting of the Early Childhood Evaluation Advisory Committee is scheduled to be held in person on July 15, 2024 from 3:30-4:30pm.
